StudioNorth

London Jewellery week 2009

Alice in Londonland

StudioNorth is a multi-disciplinary creative enterprise with its own shopfront gallery, workshop and administrative area. The premises - a former off-licence - have been purpose designed to link exhibition space with making space: While trying on the latest piece of designer jewellery in the gallery, the visitor is invited to witness the making process in the basement workshop through the structural glass floor.

Five Royal College of Art graduates [Katja Bremkamp, Tomasz Donocik, Haidée Drew, Tina Lilienthal, Chrysanthe Staikopoulou] have joined forces to run this new type of business hoping to re-establish a link between the maker and the client. Whereas the five maker-gallerists share a common way of practicing, their jewellery is very individual.

For this year's London Jewellery Week, William Chesire (www.williamcheshire.com) is joining StudioNorth on a series of events that are inspired by the Lewis Carroll novel and are appropriately named "Alice in Londonland". There are three major events, (three chapters) at the gallery over the course of the week.

Tuesday 9 June Down The Rabbit Hole.

Down The Rabbit Hole' 'Alice was beginning to get very tired of sitting by her sister on the bank, and of having nothing to do: once or twice she had peeped into the book her sister was reading...' Collection Launch on the theme Alice in Londonland.

Friday 12 June The Queen's Croquet-Ground

Come for an evening of finesse and panache with acoustic guitar by Paul de Villiers and meet the new kings and queens of jewellery battling their grounds.

Sunday 14 June The Mad Tea Party

There was a table set out under a tree in front of the house, and the March Hare and the Hatter were having tea at it...

NOTES TO EDITORS

- StudioNorth is a multi-disciplinary creative enterprise with its own shopfront gallery, workshop, meeting room and office space. The premises - a former off-licence - have been purpose designed to link exhibition space with making space and designing space. StudioNorth is occupied by a creative collective. Eight designers and makers have joined forces to run their business from here. Between us, we can design web pages, make jewellery, design buildings, draw masterplans and build stage sets. We are excited about the innovative design solutions that our inter-disciplinary approach can bring to our work.
